

Up to the Minute SPORTING NEWS From Everywhere.

BOTH ENDS OF DOUBLEHEADER WON BY SAVAGES AFTER A HARD FIGHT

DeFate, Monroe and Henning Big Stars—Whole Team Played Classy Ball.

If the right ears of Tony DeFate, Eddie Monroe and Pete Henning are not burned full of blisters today, then there is nothing to the old saying that a man's right listener gets hot every time something good is said about him.

This trio of brain and brawn made themselves the heroes of the double victory the Savages copped from the Des Moines Izzies Sunday, and there were few among the 2,100 perspiring spectators who did not go home talking about their wonderful playing and singing their praise in extravagant notes.

DeFate, who played the flashiest, classiest game at short ever seen on the local diamond, was given the lion's share of sweet honeyed words, and he deserved every compliment paid him by the idol worshippers. Not only did he cover his own territory, but he went into left field, over second base and beyond the foul lines to get hard chances and he figured in sixteen plays with only one error.

Feature Fielding.

In the seventh inning of the first game when Des Moines had men on first and third with no outs and when the score was tied DeFate saved the day by going back into left field and catching a hard fly, by throwing out a runner at the plate on the next play and by retiring the side by a throw to first on the next.

Also, in the last game he batted an even thousand, getting a triple and two singles out of three times up.

Next to DeFate, Monroe shone in splendor above all the rest. Eddie was sent into the first game in the sixth inning after it became apparent that Allen and Henning were not working as harmoniously as they might. And the injection of money into the fray, undoubtedly turned the tide of battle, as the team played steadier ball after he put on the mask and his stick work helped to tie the score and put a positive from which he counted the winning run.

Henning Earned Praise.

However, neither DeFate nor Monroe did more to make it a triumphant day than Pete Henning whose stout heart and iron nerve carried him through every kind of disaster in the first game.

The team went to pieces behind Henning in the second inning and after two were out Agler made an error that permitted the Izzies to charge through for four runners. Again in the third inning Henning was counted on twice, giving the visitors a situation lead, but even this did not daunt "Pete" and from then on he fought a remarkable up-hill battle, holding his own against a scoreless while his teammates battered their way to the front by degrees.

In the last of the third inning the Izzies started to make up the six runs that were necessary to put them on an even footing with the Savages and Goodwin camped safely at first on Kruger's error. Then Kruger came through with a triple, and DeFate, Monroe and Henning secured only a few seconds later on a wild pitch.

Thomas Put Out.

Kruger's score so rattled "Lucky" Thomas that he tried to say dirty things to Umpire Carney and was ordered out of the game. He was ordered out of the game and was ordered out of the game and was ordered out of the game.

DeFate, Monroe and Henning were the stars of the game. DeFate played the flashiest, classiest game at short ever seen on the local diamond. Monroe shone in splendor above all the rest. Eddie was sent into the first game in the sixth inning after it became apparent that Allen and Henning were not working as harmoniously as they might.

Henning Earned Praise. However, neither DeFate nor Monroe did more to make it a triumphant day than Pete Henning whose stout heart and iron nerve carried him through every kind of disaster in the first game.

The team went to pieces behind Henning in the second inning and after two were out Agler made an error that permitted the Izzies to charge through for four runners. Again in the third inning Henning was counted on twice, giving the visitors a situation lead, but even this did not daunt "Pete" and from then on he fought a remarkable up-hill battle, holding his own against a scoreless while his teammates battered their way to the front by degrees.

In the last of the third inning the Izzies started to make up the six runs that were necessary to put them on an even footing with the Savages and Goodwin camped safely at first on Kruger's error. Then Kruger came through with a triple, and DeFate, Monroe and Henning secured only a few seconds later on a wild pitch.

Thomas Put Out. Kruger's score so rattled "Lucky" Thomas that he tried to say dirty things to Umpire Carney and was ordered out of the game. He was ordered out of the game and was ordered out of the game.

DeFate, Monroe and Henning were the stars of the game. DeFate played the flashiest, classiest game at short ever seen on the local diamond. Monroe shone in splendor above all the rest. Eddie was sent into the first game in the sixth inning after it became apparent that Allen and Henning were not working as harmoniously as they might.

Henning Earned Praise. However, neither DeFate nor Monroe did more to make it a triumphant day than Pete Henning whose stout heart and iron nerve carried him through every kind of disaster in the first game.

The team went to pieces behind Henning in the second inning and after two were out Agler made an error that permitted the Izzies to charge through for four runners. Again in the third inning Henning was counted on twice, giving the visitors a situation lead, but even this did not daunt "Pete" and from then on he fought a remarkable up-hill battle, holding his own against a scoreless while his teammates battered their way to the front by degrees.

In the last of the third inning the Izzies started to make up the six runs that were necessary to put them on an even footing with the Savages and Goodwin camped safely at first on Kruger's error. Then Kruger came through with a triple, and DeFate, Monroe and Henning secured only a few seconds later on a wild pitch.

Thomas Put Out. Kruger's score so rattled "Lucky" Thomas that he tried to say dirty things to Umpire Carney and was ordered out of the game. He was ordered out of the game and was ordered out of the game.

DeFate, Monroe and Henning were the stars of the game. DeFate played the flashiest, classiest game at short ever seen on the local diamond. Monroe shone in splendor above all the rest. Eddie was sent into the first game in the sixth inning after it became apparent that Allen and Henning were not working as harmoniously as they might.

Henning Earned Praise. However, neither DeFate nor Monroe did more to make it a triumphant day than Pete Henning whose stout heart and iron nerve carried him through every kind of disaster in the first game.

The team went to pieces behind Henning in the second inning and after two were out Agler made an error that permitted the Izzies to charge through for four runners. Again in the third inning Henning was counted on twice, giving the visitors a situation lead, but even this did not daunt "Pete" and from then on he fought a remarkable up-hill battle, holding his own against a scoreless while his teammates battered their way to the front by degrees.

In the last of the third inning the Izzies started to make up the six runs that were necessary to put them on an even footing with the Savages and Goodwin camped safely at first on Kruger's error. Then Kruger came through with a triple, and DeFate, Monroe and Henning secured only a few seconds later on a wild pitch.

Thomas Put Out. Kruger's score so rattled "Lucky" Thomas that he tried to say dirty things to Umpire Carney and was ordered out of the game. He was ordered out of the game and was ordered out of the game.

DeFate, Monroe and Henning were the stars of the game. DeFate played the flashiest, classiest game at short ever seen on the local diamond. Monroe shone in splendor above all the rest. Eddie was sent into the first game in the sixth inning after it became apparent that Allen and Henning were not working as harmoniously as they might.

Henning Earned Praise. However, neither DeFate nor Monroe did more to make it a triumphant day than Pete Henning whose stout heart and iron nerve carried him through every kind of disaster in the first game.

The team went to pieces behind Henning in the second inning and after two were out Agler made an error that permitted the Izzies to charge through for four runners. Again in the third inning Henning was counted on twice, giving the visitors a situation lead, but even this did not daunt "Pete" and from then on he fought a remarkable up-hill battle, holding his own against a scoreless while his teammates battered their way to the front by degrees.

In the last of the third inning the Izzies started to make up the six runs that were necessary to put them on an even footing with the Savages and Goodwin camped safely at first on Kruger's error. Then Kruger came through with a triple, and DeFate, Monroe and Henning secured only a few seconds later on a wild pitch.

Thomas Put Out. Kruger's score so rattled "Lucky" Thomas that he tried to say dirty things to Umpire Carney and was ordered out of the game. He was ordered out of the game and was ordered out of the game.

TENNIS FINALS

Bob Shoemaker and Miss Hopkins Win Doubles Title.

Heath and Miss Kitchell Are Downed After Hard Playing.

Bob Shoemaker and Miss Hopkins took the title of mixed doubles champions of Topeka when they defeated Don Heath and Miss Bertha Kitchell in the finals of the tournament at the Y. M. C. A. courts, corner Tenth and Lane streets.

Furnace like temperature was not enough to prevent attendance of the biggest gallery that the tourney has had. More than one hundred and fifty were on hand for the semi-final between Nettels and Miss Gwynn Shakeshaft and Heath and Miss Kitchell.

The semi-final gave the gallery a three-set match. Nettels and Miss Shakeshaft walked away with the first set 6-3, their opponents seeming unable to make their shots good. The second set saw a reversal of form, the game of Nettels and Miss Shakeshaft steadily deteriorating, while Heath and Miss Kitchell played better tennis as the match progressed. The last two sets were short the latter pair winning by score of 6-1, 6-1. Both Nettels and Shakeshaft played well, the form shown by them on Friday when they defeated Weiskirch and Miss Elsie Cuthbert.

The Final Good.

The final gave the gallery a good contest. As in every match they played during the tourney, Heath and Miss Kitchell got away to a bad start losing the first set 2-6. The next set was a marathon. Heath and Miss Kitchell speeded up winning with the scores 5-4 in favor of Shoemaker and Miss Hopkins. Then followed a determined struggle every one winning their service. The match was lost when Heath dropped his service on the twentieth stroke.

The last set was the longest of any played in the tournament the score being 11-9.

The gallery was the most enthusiastic that has ever attended a Topeka tournament and bodes well for the future of tennis in this city.

The brunt of the attack was sustained by Miss Hopkins, who personally staged some finer rallies. Especially notable was her game with Miss Kitchell's good service was a prominent factor in her team's success in the semi-final. Shoemaker was not obliged to extend himself but his twist serving and steamy drives showed clearly that he is still number 1 in Topeka tennis.

The Greys Win a Pair.

Horton and Hensville Teams Both Taken Into Camp by Topekans.

The Topeka Greys defeated Horton Sunday afternoon by the score of 3 to 4 in a game featured by the pitching of Grindle, of the Greys. Grindle had perfect control and had his opposition guessing all the way.

The score: R. H. E. Greys..... 101 001 010 5 7 3 Horton..... 001 001 010 4 4 2

Batteries: Grindle and Janickie; Riley and Wiley.

Summary: With Johnson pitching, defeated Roseville Saturday 2 to 0. The Greys' organization is composed of the following players: Janickie and Peterson, catchers; Johnson and Grindle, pitchers; Holmgren, Gillette, Montgomery, LaVare, Daugherty, and Peterson, outfielders.

Out of town teams desiring games with the Greys should address Fred Kelle at 715 Kansas avenue.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

No games scheduled Sunday.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

First St. Louis game: R. H. E. St. Louis..... 1 5 0 Boston..... 2 7 0

At St. Joe—First game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Second game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Third game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Fourth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Fifth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Sixth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Seventh game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Eighth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Ninth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Tenth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Eleventh game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Twelfth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Thirteenth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Fourteenth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Fifteenth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Sixteenth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Seventeenth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

THERE ARE OTHER BONE PLAYS BESIDES STEALING SECOND WITH BASES PACKED

SO BACK YOU FOOL!

STALING SECOND WITH ALL THE BASES PACKED IS THE GRAND OLD BONE PLAY OF THEM ALL.

HE WAS TOLD TO "USE HIS NOSE."

TWO COTS AND A GUY ON THIRD SWEET HE SAYS THAT.

THERE HAS BEEN MORE THAN A FEW PITCHERS WITH 174 HEADS.

Bonehead plays will always divert the fan, even though he hoots, and it is probable that they will occur from time to time forever. Though it seldom happens, stealing second with the bases full is the most celebrated, and there are others, a few of which are touched upon in the accompanying picture.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

Western League.

National League.

American League.

St. Louis..... 1 5 0 Boston..... 2 7 0

At St. Joe—First game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Second game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Third game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Fourth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Fifth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Sixth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Seventh game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Eighth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Ninth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Tenth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Eleventh game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Twelfth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Thirteenth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Fourteenth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Fifteenth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Sixteenth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Seventeenth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Eighteenth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Nineteenth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Twentieth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Twenty-first game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Twenty-second game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Twenty-third game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Twenty-fourth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Twenty-fifth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

At St. Joe—Twenty-sixth game: R. H. E. St. Joe..... 000 000 01-1 4 0 Boston..... 000 000 01-3 11 0

FATHER OF ROWING

Julius H. Barnes Is the Lipton of U. S. Row Sport.

Duluth Boasts Greatest Blade Welders in the Country.

BY FRANK G. MENKE.

New York, July 31.—A western rowing authority once remarked:

"A Duluth oarsman can shoot a shell backwards at a faster clip than any other man can and it forward."

The man from the sunset region of the U. S. A. probably was carried away a bit by his enthusiasm over the prowess of the Minnesota blade welders, but the fact remains that the Duluth boys are greatest natural oarsmen in the world; that they are the standard by which all others are judged.

The record established during the past few years by the youths competing under the colors of the famous Duluth Boat club is an amazing one, showing that range beyond that of any other strictly amateur rowing organization in the world.

Competing in the regattas run under the auspices of the Northwestern Rowing association and the National Rowing association, and pitted against the most skilled oarsmen in the United States, the Duluth club has won since 1911, have achieved the following:

The Great Record.

Won forty-eight firsts, eight seconds and one third in fifty-eight starts. Just once in the fifty-year sweep did a Duluth shell finish unplaced, although every one of its boats was raced against shells manned by the crack oarsmen of the country.

Duluth sweepers and scullers have won up to the present time, even the oldest inhabitants have lost count. They hold almost every time mark in the many different events that constitute a big club regatta. The immense clubhouse is filled with trophies, and a Duluth oarsman, when fully bedecked in his medals and ribbons takes on the "made appearance" of a European field marshal of "commendable bravery."

Is it any wonder that "Duluth oarsmen" and "perfect oarsmanship" have become synonymous?

And to Julius H. Barnes, the "Lipton of Rowing," goes the major portion of the credit for the remarkable accomplishments of the Duluth blade welders during the past fifteen or twenty years. In Duluth and everywhere else where this wealthy grain importer is known, he is hailed as "one of the finest sportsmen in the world," which he is.

Love of Rowing.

Barnes has been a lover of the rowing game all his life. Back in 1896, when he was in his early twenties, he pulled a blade in Duluth's original rowing club, the "Duluth Boat Club," which was the first rowing club in the Minneapolis town; the "Big Four" which, for several years, swept ahead of the finish line in the majority of its races.

When business cares forced Barnes to abandon active participation in the game, he decided to all his power to popularize the rowing.

"It is one of the finest sports in the world; it is a wonderful brain and body builder for boys," he said, "and I want to give the youths in Duluth a chance to become real oarsmen and to imbibe its benefits."

And so Barnes opened wide his purse strings and started a boom for rowing which, in the years since then, has lifted Duluth to the crest of the rowing world; which has resulted in keeping the game all over the United States and making it one of the greatest summer sports in America.

Backing Barnes in his efforts to lift rowing to the highest possible plane, was the Duluth Boat Club. Barnes, quiet, modest and unassuming declares that the splendid co-operation by the club officials was the prime cause for the great increase in rowing interest. But the club officials have a different viewpoint.

Credit to Barnes.

"It was Julius H. Barnes who made rowing the great national sport, who practically made the Duluth Boat Club what it is today," say the officials. "It is true, the Duluth Boat Club existed before Barnes time. It was organized in 1886 with eleven members. Along in '96 and '97, when Barnes became active in behalf of rowing, the club had a membership of a hundred or two, but not many of them were extremely active. Our clubhouse was small."

"But Barnes changed all that. He gave unsparingly in time and money. In ten years he spent close to $75,000 to help the game. He built new boat houses and hired special coaches to tutor the boys. He saw to it that our oarsmen lacked nothing in equipment and preparation. The finest shells obtainable were not too good for our boys, in Barnes opinion. He saw to it that our rowing was first class in rowing and, as a result, our membership increased by leaps and bounds. Today we have an enrollment of something like 1,500 and have a club and rowing establishment which is ranked as among the finest in the world."

"And to Julius H. Barnes, that grand sportsman—and to no one else—goes the real credit."

The average adult inhales about one gallon of air per minute.

Leo Murphy, Kansas City catcher, who tried out for the Savage basketball position last season, is catching for an independent team at Chisholm, Minn., this summer and it is reported that he is making quite a record.

Cleveland and Detroit are the only western baseball teams that are making big money this year, says a Cleveland sportsman. He says that the only big league team west of the Alleghenies just now.

At Kansas City Tony DeFate's nickname was "Joko." He must have earned it by the way he makes opposing pitchers look like Jokes.

Speaker Out for Ten Days.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 31.—Cleveland's chances for coping the American League race took a decided slump today, following the injury to Tris Speaker, who sprained his ankle while making a catch in Sunday's game. Physicians hope that Tris will be able to get back into the game inside ten days.

Tennis Tournament at Kansas City.

Kansas City, Mo., July 31.—Opening of the first annual Missouri state tennis championships for men on the courts of the Kansas City Field club here brought together today a notable aggregation of Missouri players and a number of stars from other states. Play will continue through the week.

Additional Sport Will Be Found On Other Pages

BASEBALL TODAY.

National League.

Pittsburgh at New York, cloudy, 2, first 1:45 p. m.

Cincinnati at Brooklyn, cloudy, 2, first 1:30 p. m.

Chicago at Philadelphia, clear, 3:30 p. m.

St. Louis at Boston, cloudy, 2, first 1:30 p. m.

American League.

Philadelphia at Chicago, cloudy, 3, 3:15 p. m.

Boston at Detroit, clear, 3:15 p. m.

New York at St. Louis, clear, 3:30 p. m.

Philadelphia at Chicago, cloudy, 3, 3:15 p. m.

Boston at Detroit, clear, 3:15 p. m.

New York at St. Louis, clear